LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

1. Of course, the wolf is the first to get to Granny's house and once there, he eats poor Granny.
2. All together, they fill the wolf's belly with stones and when he wakes up and wants to run away, he can't because of the heavy stones.
3. You go this way and I will go the other way.
4. Little Red Riding Hood leaves home and meets a wicked wolf in the forest.
5. "All the better to hear you with, my dear!"
6. When he sees the sleeping wolf, the hunter cuts the wolf's belly open and saves both Little Red Riding Hood and her Grandmother.
7. And then the wolf jumps out of the bed and eats Little Red Riding Hood.
8. When Little Red Riding Hood finally gets to the house, she sees a large body in her grandmother's nightclothes, and wonders, "What big arms you have, Granny!"
9. "Where are you going, little girl?" the wolf asks.
10. "And what big teeth you have."
11. One day, Mother says to Little Red Riding Hood, "Go to see your Granny and take her a cake and a bottle of wine.
12. "And what big ears you have, Granny!"
13. She is ill."
14. She tells him about her ill Granny, and he says, "I want to go and visit her too.
15. "All the better to eat you with!!!"
16. Luckily, a hunter is passing by and hears a noise coming from Granny's house.
17. The wolf replies, "All the better to hug you with!"
18. Let's see who arrives first at your Granny's."
